

GODDARD LAYS CLAIM

To Preparatory School Football Championship

WON ITS SCHOOL GAMES

And Lost But Two Games Altogether. Was to Have Played Brattleboro, Which Claimed Southern Leadership, but Latter Canceled.

By winning its preparatory school games this year, Goddard seminary emerges from the football season of 1910 the only undisputed claimant to the preparatory championship of the state. Rolling up a decisive score against the strong Newport high school eleven, Goddard subdued the erstwhile champions of northern Vermont. Later in the season, the seminary defeated Burlington high school, hitherto a strong factor in the race. To clinch its hold on the championship, a game was arranged with Brattleboro high school, which team had already overcome everything in the southern part of the state. The latter's failure, however, to obtain better than an even break with Bellows Falls high school last Saturday resulted in the canceling of the game, Brattleboro relinquishing all claims to the honor in favor of Goddard.

Lost Only Two Games.
Among other elevens that have gone down before the local school are: St. Michael's college, always formidable and ever worthy of any team's steel; the Montpelier Independents, an eleven composed largely of players from Montpelier high school and Montpelier seminary; and the Italian club of this city. Goddard has lost only two games during the season. Early in the fall the Norwich university seconds came to Barre and scored a victory over the locals, largely by reason of their team work and superior knowledge of the new rules. The seminary eleven, hastily constructed as it was of much raw material, even then showed signs of the excellent form displayed only a few weeks later. Toward the close of the season, the team met its second and last reversal, by going down before St. Michael's college at Winooski. The loss of this game was due for the most part to a temporary slump, and the absence of some of the star players.

The squad has been coached during the season by L. J. Stacy, a graduate of St. Lawrence university. It was through his thorough knowledge of the game and his ability to successfully interpret and put into practice the new rules that the team has done so well, and he is deserving of much commendation for the creditable showing of the team. William Richardson has proven an excellent captain and inspiring leader, while Lyle L. Craig has acted efficiently as manager. The average weight of the team is 161 pounds and height 5 feet, 10 inches.

A Well-Balanced Eleven.
This year's aggregation is one of the best balanced elevens which has ever represented the school on the hill. Team work in every instance has been the chief feature of the play, and naturally has been one of the contributing causes for success. On the ends, McLeay and Melver have played like veterans. In Turney, Louis, Richardson, Tinkham and Lane, the team has had a strong line, composed of men that were in the game at every stage. Fiske, at quarterback, has proved himself entirely capable of executing difficult plays, and has outgeneraled and outwitted his opponents in every game repeatedly. He is without doubt the best quarterback in the state. The remainder of the backfield, Scott and Chapple in the halves and Sherburne as fullback, played a game consistent with the work of the line and formed a combination that was almost impossible to stop. This year's eleven has also been unusually successful in having a sound of fast and heavy substitutes. The team will lose by graduation Captain Richardson, Tinkham, Fiske, Turney, Scott and Lane. It will thus be seen that a good nucleus will remain for next year's eleven.

The team has won five games and lost two, scoring 115 points to 39 for their opponents. The games and scores follow:

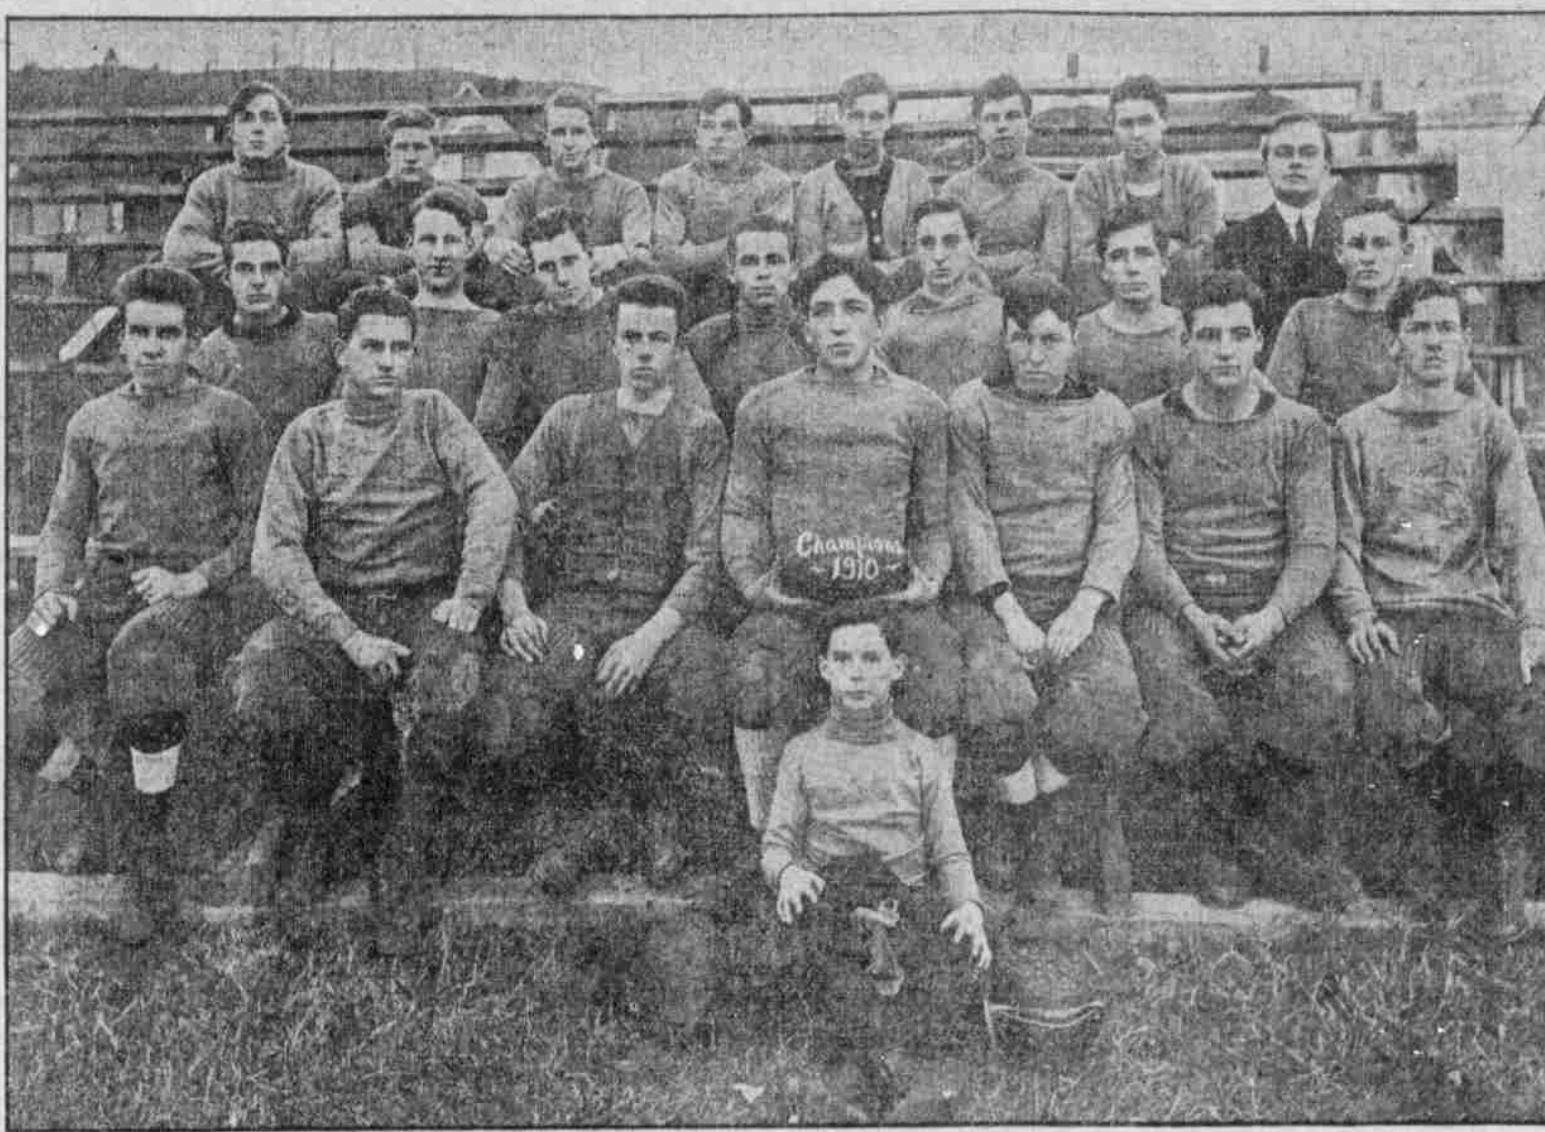

Goddard, 0	Norwich university 24s. 17
Goddard, 10	St. Michael's college 0
Goddard, 5	Italian Athletic club 0
Goddard, 68	Newport high school 0
Goddard, 5	St. Michael's college 22
Goddard, 22	Montpelier Independents 0
Goddard, 25	Burlington high school 0

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 25.—George Hackenschmidt, the Russian lion, last night met Zybeco, the Pole, in a handicap match, the conditions of which required the Russian to throw his opponent twice in an hour. He failed. It was a repetition of the match a year ago between Frank Gotch and Zybeco. Hackenschmidt was always back of his man, but could never get his shoulders to the mat.

DREXEL MAKES NEW RECORD.

Flew to a Height of Nearly 10,000 Feet at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 25.—Followers of aviation in this vicinity were kept busy Wednesday watching the fortunes of J. Armstrong Drexel of this city, who established a new world's record and Claude Grahame-White, the English man bird, who brought to a close a series of exciting exhibitions at the Point Breeze race track in the southern section of the city. Drexel broke all aeroplane altitude records Wednesday when he climbed above this city until his Blériot monoplane was unable to make further progress in the rarified atmosphere. The link in the needle of his barograph ran out at 9,970 feet, which was accepted as a new world's record Wednesday night by Clifford B. Harmon, chairman of the national council of Associated Aero Clubs of America, and James King Duffly, the secretary of that body. The instrument is the same one which Johnson carried when he made the former record of 9,714 feet at Belmont park on Oct. 21.

Drexel again proved the chief attraction yesterday. He tried to fly to Philadelphia in a Blériot monoplane from Orchard, Pa., where he landed Wednesday after his record-breaking flight, but he got lost and was forced by lack of gasoline to land at Trenton Junction, four miles from Trenton, N. J. Orchard is about 13 miles from Philadelphia. He said he mistook the Delaware river for the Schuylkill and traveled north instead of south. He had intended following the Schuylkill to Point Breeze.

After arranging for the safe-keeping of the aircraft, Drexel returned to Philadelphia by train.

Grahame-White and several thousand persons were awaiting Mr. Drexel at Point Breeze and when word, which proved to be untrue, was received that the former was coming down the river, Mr. White sailed up the river to meet him. After his descent word of Mr. Drexel's landing was received.

Mr. White gave several exhibition flights yesterday and on one of his trips took aloft General James Allen, chief signal officer of the United States army. General Allen was taken over the Philadelphia navy yard which is about a mile from Point Breeze.

PENN DEFEATS CORNELL

In a Hard and Fast Game Yesterday

MAKES TWO TOUCHDOWNS

And Kicks Two Goals in the Game. The Ithacas Frequently Threatened the Red and Blue Goal.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 25.—In a hard and fast game in which there was a mixture of good and bad playing, the university of Pennsylvania football team defeated Cornell on Franklin field, 12 to 6, the Quakers' score being made on two touchdowns and goals and Cornell's on two goals from placement by quarterback Butler.

Notwithstanding Pennsylvania won, the score was a disappointment to the followers of the Philadelphia eleven. The red and blue team at times lacked the dash it has shown in several games this season and some of its plays were marred by fumbling and poor handling of punts. On the other hand, Cornell played a more dashing game than was expected. Her interference to help the runner with the ball was at times almost perfect. On several occasions it looked as if the Ithaca men would succeed in carrying the ball across the goal line, but the Pennsylvanians braced up when things looked dangerous and held the big team from New York state repeatedly. Then Cornell would resort to a goal from placement, but it succeeded only twice in the five or six times it was tried. Pennsylvania's back field was a disappointment. It failed to play up to the form shown in previous games. This was due in a large measure to men who were injured again becoming incapacitated, so far as first-class football was concerned. Scott played poorly, compared with his brilliant work heretofore, being outpunted by Butler and frequently fumbled punts.

The Cornell team as a whole gave a fine exhibition of helping the runner, easily bowling over Pennsylvania tacklers before they were able to touch the man with the ball. Cornell's playing was also quite free from fumbles. Except a wing shift used by Cornell the game brought out no new football features. The forward pass failed almost as often as it gained, Cornell being more successful with this play than Pennsylvania.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 25.—Syracuse university defeated the St. Louis university football team yesterday, 6 to 0. The eastern team made three points in the first period and three more in the last. The points were made by goals from the field.

Although St. Louis played brilliantly, the team could not overcome the great work of Wilkinson, left halfback, and Waldron, quarter, on the Syracuse eleven. They displayed the best football that has been seen here this season.

SKULL CRUSHED IN A TROLLEY ACCIDENT

Prof. R. J. Round of Elmira, N. Y., Instantly Killed in Street Car Accident Yesterday.

Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Robert J. Round, principal of school number 3, and one of Elmira's prominent educators, was almost instantly killed and two others were slightly injured when a street car bearing a load of spectators to a football game jumped the track on a curve just outside of the football field, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The car turned turtle and struck a telephone pole, throwing Prof. Round to one end of the car, where his head was crushed by a broken timber. He died instantly.

Another passenger sustained a compound fracture of the wrist and a bad scalp wound, while the conductor was badly cut about the face. There were 22 people in the car at the time but all of the others escaped with slight bruises.

The car was proceeding at a moderate speed and no cause for the accident has been given as yet. Motorman L. J. Wilbur and Conductor L. C. Feno were taken into custody and later released pending an investigation.

Prof. Round was the dean of the Elmira school principals and was superintendent of schools in this city during 1900. He is survived by a wife and one son, Julian, principal of the high school at Homer, N. Y.

DENIED NEW TRIAL.

Abe Ruef, San Francisco Gaffer, Must Serve 14-year Sentence.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—The district court of appeals of the first district has sustained the conviction of Abraham Ruef, former political boss of that city, charged with having bribed supervisors. The court denied him a new trial. The decision is contained in 46 pages, written by Presiding Judge Cooper, and affirms the lower court on all points. Ruef had been sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment and was at liberty on bail.

MINISTER AND WIFE WERE MURDERED

Rev. A. L. Armstrong and Wife Shot Dead With Shot Guns—Arrests Made.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 25.—The murder of Rev. Anzi L. Armstrong and his wife, Anna Armstrong, at their home, Dutch Neck, Wednesday night has resulted in charges preferred by county detective James Kirkham against John Sears, who was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Mills last night and held without bail to answer two separate charges of homicide.

Indolph Norhaus, who was brought to Trenton yesterday by the county authorities with Sears, was allowed to go to his home in New Brunswick. Prosecutor Crossley said that he was entirely satisfied that Norhaus was in no way connected with the murder and that his presence in Dutch Neck yesterday morning was the result of a prearrangement between himself and Sears to go on a hunting trip.

Early in the morning, after having submitted Sears to a severe examination, Prosecutor Crossley and county detective Kirkham went to Dutch Neck and as the prosecutor expressed himself, Sears' mother, the housekeeper in the Armstrong household was impounded in the custody of constables at a house in Dutch Neck.

Mr. Crossley would not discuss the surveillance on the mother except to say that the disposition of her case would be determined to-day. The prosecutor also refused to discuss the motive for the murder or what robbery was committed.

The investigation, it was stated, established that Rev. Armstrong and his wife were killed by shot from a double barreled gun which was yesterday found standing in a corner in the kitchen of the Armstrong home. This gun was borrowed by Sears two weeks ago from a neighbor for gunning.

Sears is a half-breed and his mother a negro. Mrs. Sears has been housekeeper in the Armstrong family for more than 30 years, having been employed by the murdered man before the birth of her son, who is 53 years of age.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong was one of the best known Presbyterian ministers in southern New Jersey. He had been pastor of the church of Dutch Neck for 43 years and for nearly as long a time was stated clerk of the Presbytery of New Brunswick. He was a graduate of Princeton and also of Princeton seminary.

Proving His Contentment.

"Jones is an optimist, even in the most discouraging circumstances, isn't he?"

"Why, no. His mother-in-law is slightly indisposed, and he thinks there's no hope for her recovery."

"Well, what'd I tell you?"—Cleveland Leader.

Chess in Ancient Ceylon.

In ancient Ceylon the game of chess was played with local variations peculiar enough to note. The king may not castle, but he is permitted to jump like a knight till checked. The pawns are exchangeable on the last row for the pieces on whose row they stand.

Though the world may owe every man a living, only the persistent collector gets it.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Powers, the Hypnotist at Opera House Next Week.

The hypnotic demonstrations of the great Powers are notable for what may be termed "variable contrast."

One minute the audience is spell bound at some of his marvelous feats, like the "blood test" and the next they are ready to break their sides with laughter at the ludicrous antics of his class of subjects while under the power of "hypnosis." It may be safe to say: "that no other living hypnotist has the repertoire of feats and demonstrations that the great Power has."

His performances could be properly termed advanced hypnotism. Pauline, Perelle and Powers were at one time fellow students in this most fascinating science and they have caused more wonder and comment than any of their predecessors, cannot be denied. The local public has had the pleasure of witnessing the two former artists and now the opportunity is near at hand for the great Powers to display his gift, who may be properly classified and advertised as the leading exponent of the "power hypnotist."

That he is living up to the title is evinced by the packed houses that are greeting him in his opening nights in each city. Special care has been taken in the selection of novelties that will appear with the great Powers on his tour this season. No expense has been spared by his manager, Mr. Perkins, in equipping the company as will be noted when two of the original Keller illusions are introduced. One is the famous Keller spirit cabinet and the other is the wonderful Keller Hindoo glass trunk mystery in the latter a woman is apparently created out of space. This is absolutely new and entirely different from all other so-called trunk mysteries or illusion boxes or trunks. In addition to the above Elsie Cameron, Marie Denette, Cole and Kelly and others will offer pleasing and diverting specialties all of exceptional merit. The great Powers will occupy the stage for thirty minutes only and during that time his demonstrations and power of hypnosis will be given for the wonder and amusement of his audience. At the Barre opera house next week.

PLAINTIFF WEEPS IN COURT.

Applicant for Divorce Presents Pitiable Sight—Admits a Great Deal.

Rutland, Nov. 24.—Admitting that he had once gone through the motions of committing suicide to make his wife obey his wishes and crying almost continually during the cross-examination, W. P. Oakman of Foulney, three times married, made a pitiful sight on the witness stand in county court yesterday afternoon, when he testified in a contested divorce brought by himself against his wife, Mary E. Oakman. Mrs. Oakman has also brought a counter suit.

During the recital of his story, Mr. Oakman said that he was first married

In 1884. His first wife died and he married the second time, two years later, his second wife getting a divorce on the ground of desertion. His present wife left him after a few years of married life in 1907, and it is upon these grounds that he is attempting to get a bill. His wife alleges intolerable severity.
